

ACCO Industry Partners

Benefit of the Month / Forum Network

The ACCO Forum Network is an organized group of ACCO non-competing contractor members working together to share ideas. Members in the group work together to help each other improve their businesses -- frequently acting like an informal "board of directors" for each other's company.

During meetings, members review company policies, operating procedures, employee performance and related labor issues, advertising and marketing strategies, quality improvement, industry sensitive issues, and service operations, among other data.

Achieve More with ACCO

ACCO members are committed to excellence for themselves and their industry. Together, we are changing the HVACR industry for the better.

I am ACCO...

"They help solve our problems and provide us with the answers we need, when we need them."

"My company is able to participate in quality programs and gain valuable information"

"They're helping us to become the contractors we want to be"

"We benefit from the strong relationships with code officials and state officials"

OSHA Clarifies Residential Confined Space After industry encouragement, OSHA has provided additional guidance on residential confined space as applied to attics, crawl spaces, and basements (without permanent stairs installed). A key clarification indicates that the mere presence of gas or electrical utilities does not necessarily cause these areas to become "Permit Required Confined Spaces." OSHA has modified its Frequently Asked Questions to include a number of questions directly asked by the construction industry (particularly note items 23-49).
